GLENWOOD FOR "DRY" RUSHVILLE

Fifty-five Citizens of That Metropolis Petition City to Vote Against Saloon Return.

ASK SAME OF CONNERSVILLE

Declare They Will Favor City Which Goes "Dry" by Trading There.

That the citizens of Glenwood, the county-line town, whose residents are inhabitants of both Fayette and Rush county, are in favor of a "dry" Rushville and a "dry" Connersville is evidenced by the lengthy petition which was received at the Daily Republican office this afternoon. The petition contains the names of fifty-five residents of Glenwood, all of whom have put themselves down as being in favor of both cities, in which they do their trading, being free of saloons.

The petitioners aver that they will be compelled to show preference to the city that votes "dry." They express regret that they have no voice in the coming election, but they urge that every Rushville person use his or her influence for the cause of temperance until the polls close on Tuesday evening.

The petition is entitled:
To the Citizens and Business Men of Connersville and Rushville and is as follows:

We, the undersigned citizens of Glenwood, Rush and Fayette counties, do hereby ask and request that you use every effort from now until the polls close February 28 to vote your town "dry."

We feel we are directly interested but have no voice in the coming contest. We do believe that we will be compelled to show our courtesy to the town that votes "dry," and if you will do what we helped you to do two years ago, we will continue to show the same courtesy to all and malice towards none. Signed.

THOMAS COLLIER SUCCEUMBS

Remains Will be Brought Here For Burial.

Omer Collier was called to Indianapolis last night by the death of his uncle, Thomas Collier. Mr. Collier was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Collier, formerly of Union township, and was the brother of Judge Joseph Collier of the Superior court No. 2. The funeral services will be held Monday morning at nine o'clock in Indianapolis. Burial in the Catholic cemetery in this city.

IMPORTANT CASE SETTLED

Account and Note Suit Against the Stark Estate is Finished.

One of the important cases of this term of the circuit court, which was set for today, was wiped off the docket when the account and note suit of Dora Wellman against P. A. Miller, as administrator of the estate of Thomas Stark, was settled out of court. Mrs. Wellman brought suit for a total of $2,565, part for payment of a note and another part for keeping Mr. Stark during his declining years. The settlement which was agreed on by both defendant and plaintiff provided that $500 should be paid for the account and $239 on the note, which includes $25 for attorney's fees. Megee & Kiplinger represented Mrs. Wellman.

CHAIN LETTERS BRANDED FRAUD

Gift, Which Has Been Worked Here,
Found Many People in Greenfield
Who Believed in It.

TO AID AUSTRALIA COLLEGE

A recent epidemic of endless chain letter sending, is proving a fraud. Several Greenfield people recently received such letters from people in various parts of the country with the request that they copy the letters and send three of them out to friends with the same request. The object of this was in this first instance to aid a college in Australia. The instructions were to mail the original letter received, together with four unused stamps to Miss Mills, Philadelphia, 37th and Chestnut streets.

These instructions were complied with by some local people and now their letters to the above address are returning to the senders marked "fictitious" by the postoffice department. The same plan, but with a different alleged motive, has been worked successfully here several times.

WHITE PLAGUE CALLS ANOTHER

Chester Dearing, 24 Years Old, Succumbs at Home of His Parents, Southwest of This City.

HAD BEEN ILL ABOUT A YEAR

Chester Dearing, 25 years old, died last night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dearing, southwest of the city. Mr. Dearing had suffered for about a year from consumption, which caused his death. He was first taken ill with the measles and this developed into consumption. Besides his parents, he is survived by several brothers and sisters. The funeral services will be held tomorrow at ten o'clock at the Pleasant Ridge church. Burial will be in the cemetery there.

CAMPAIGN END COMES SUNDAY

"Drys" Prepare to Close With Two Monster Meetings Before the Election on Tuesday.

VOTING PLACES ARE NAMED

Boundaries of Precincts to be Observed Are Defined--Election Board Vacancies Filled.

The "drys" of the city are expecting a more enthusiastic temperance day tomorrow than they had a few weeks ago. They hope to close the active campaign with one of the biggest demonstrations that was ever seen here. They are predicting that immense audiences will be present tomorrow at the two big mass meetings, which will be held at the Main Street Christian church, one in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the other in the evening at seven o'clock. Men, women and children will make up the crowd, which, it is expected, will test the seating capacity of the spacious auditorium at both meetings.

In the evening the biggest meeting of the campaign will be held, when Judge A. Z. Blair of Adams county, Ohio, will discuss the temperance question. Local people are familiar with his past by reason of the many announcements that have been made concerning him and by reason of his excellent reputation, it seems likely that he will be greeted by a monster audience. A musical program will be rendered and the singing will be led by well known musicians.

The afternoon meeting is expected to prove attractive as it will be purely a "home-made" affair. Only local men will speak, including the ministers of the city and other men who have gained prominence in all walks of life. It has been well termed a "personal experience" meeting as men who are respected and held in high regard by all Rushville people, will express their opinions on the temperance question. Music will be an important part of the afternoon program.

All arrangements have practically been made for the election. The election boards were appointed by the commissioners several days ago, but it was found that a number of men found it impossible to serve. For that reason the commissioners met today again and filled the vacancies in the boards.

There has been much discussion recently as to where the boundaries of the various voting precincts, which it will be necessary to know in the local option election of next Tuesday, lie. The following, which has been taken from a corrected map of the city and which is correct in every detail, will be of interest to voters who expect to cast their ballot either against or for the saloon.

HAD RIGHT TO SECOND TRIAL

Appellate Court Upholds Decision of Lower Court in Norris-Kendall Case.

MUCH REAL ESTATE INVOLVED

Bessie E. Norris Won Suit in First Case in Local Courts--Second Was Reversed.

The Appellate court of Indiana made an important ruling yesterday, which affected a Rush county estate, when the judges upheld the ruling of the circuit court in the case of Bessie E. Norris et al. vs. Marcus A. Kendall et al. The first plaintiff is the wife of Verne Norris, clerk of the circuit court, while the first defendant is her father. The suit involves about one hundred and forty acres of land and two houses and lots in Milroy.

Marcus A. Kendall, Sr., first deeded his property to his granddaughter, Mrs. Norris, and later deeded it to his son and her father, Marcus A. Kendall, Jr. She then brought suit against him for possession of real estate and in the first trial, the plaintiffs won the case. The defendants were granted a new trial and in that the decision was reversed.

The plaintiffs felt that they could not win in the higher courts on the merits of the case and appealed it to the Appellate court on the theory that the defendants had no right to a second trial. The Appellate judges held that the defendants did have a right to a second hearing and in that upheld the decision of the lower court, so that the second judgment in favor of Marcus A. Kendall et al. will stand.

Megee and Kiplinger, and Smith, Cambern & Smith represented the defendants, while Watson, Titsworth and Green, and Douglas Morris were attorneys for the plaintiffs.

POSTOFFICE LOSS WILL REACH $300

Announced That Yeggmen Made a Bigger Haul at Carthage Than First Was Thought.

NO TRACE OF THIEVES FOUND

It is believed that the loss at the Carthage postoffice as the result of a visit by yeggmen early yesterday morning will aggregate about three hundred dollars in stamps and cash, when Enos Coffin, postmaster, finally determines how much stock he had in the office. It was first announced that the loss would not exceed $140, but it was learned today that it had already reached $263 and the postmaster had not yet exactly determined the amount. No trace of the thieves has yet been found.

It has since been learned that the robes found in the buggy, which was stolen from Willard Minor's barn by the robbers to make their escape and later found, were taken from the barn of the Rev. C. O. Whitely, pastor of the Carthage Friends' church.

Stunted maple trees, grown in mountainous egions of eastern Austria, where the winters are long and severe and the snowfalls considerable, yield excellent wood for the manufacture of violins.

SPENCERS WILL APPEAR

People, Well Known Here, Will Give
Program in Connersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Spencer of Indianapolis will take part in a musical program to be rendered at the First M. E. church, next Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League, says the Connersville News. Mrs. Spencer was formerly Miss Ruth Tevis of this city, and is very well known here. Both Mr. and Mrs. Spencer have excellent voices and their presence here will be a pleasure to their many friends. They will also bring with them a pianist and violinist and a very good program is promised by the presence of these talented musicians.

PYTHIANS GATHER IN NEW CASTLE

Local Knights Attend District Meeting, Where Grand Officers Appear on Program.

EXEMPLIFICATION OF WORK

Five hundred Knights of Pythias attended the annual meeting of the Eleventh district, comprising the counties of Rush, Randolph, Union, Fayette, Wayne, and Henry counties, in New Castle yesterday afternoon and evening. Several local knights were present.

Grand lodge officers in attendance were John F. Petri, grand chancellor of Indianapolis; Harry S. Wade, grand keeper of records and seals of Indianapolis; Arlie M. Brown, past grand chancellor of Winchester, and William F. Hart, grand vice chancellor, of Huntington. At the afternoon session Judge Edward Jackson of the Henry circuit court delivered an address of welcome, and the response was by Grand Chancellor Petri. Last evening there was an exemplification of the unwritten work and addresses by the Grand Lodge officers and others.

DISHMAN FUNERAL WILL BE SUNDAY

Mystery Surrounds Demise of Man in Lewisville, Who Was Found Dead in His Bed.

WAS ADDICTED TO MORPHINE

The funeral services of Henry Dishman, 52 years old, who was found dead at the home of his brother, Harry Dishman, in Lewisville, yesterday morning, will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Lewisville church. The opinions how Dishman met his death are varied, it being intimated that it was accidental and again that it was suicide. Dishman is said to have been addicted to the use of morphine and it is generally believed that he took an overdose. The Henry county coroner, who arrived at the Dishman home late yesterday afternoon, will not return a verdict for a few days.

Dishman had been a ward of Henry county until a few weeks ago when he went to Lewisville for a visit with his brothers. Thursday he went to Knightstown and returned in the evening in apparently perfectly good health. The next morning he was found dead in his bed.

TAKE WILLIAMS TO GREENFIELD

The Officers Return Man, Freed of Charge in Indianapolis, on Indictment From Mayor's Court.

GRAND JURY PROBE IS OVER

Believed That Williams May Have to Stand Trial for Robberies Mentioned by Deery.

Dan Williams of Greenfield, held in Indianapolis in connection with the New Palestine bank robbery, yesterday was taken to Greenfield by officers of that city and it is said will face an indictment for implication in a robbery there. Williams was held on a charge here of conspiring to rob the New Palestine Bank, together with Cordia Martin and Vance Deery, the latter two having been sentenced to prison. Williams was acquitted in a trial in Indianapolis.

A Greenfield paper says that the result of the grand jury inquiry concerning the robberies that occurred there a year ago, may soon develop. Cordia Martin, Dan Williams and Van Deery were locked up with the grand jury a big part of Thursday afternoon, and while the proceedings are not made public, it is understood that action will be taken at once in regard to the robberies that occurred in Greenfield a year ago, in which Van Deery said on the witness stand at Indianapolis, himself, Martin and Williams were implicated.

Williams was taken back to Indianapolis Thursday afternoon, but the charge against him there was nollied by the prosecutor Friday morning.

An affidavit from the mayor's court charging complicity in the burglary of the Star store is to be served on him as soon as he is released on the former charge, it is said, and he will be under the jurisdiction of this county until the matter is disposed of.

Whether or not Martin opened up on any of the robberies, is not definitely known, but it is the general opinion among those who know Martin, that he gave out all the information on the occasion of his first arrest, that he intends to let the officers or public know, the only defense being made for him, being that he could not have opened the bank safe without having the combination. The grand jury adjourned Friday evening until Monday.

WILLIAM BECHTEL DEAD

Passed Away Today in Spiceland
After Long Illness.

William Bechtel, better known in this city as "Billy the tailor," died today in Spiceland, where he had gone for the benefit of his health. Mr. Bechtel was about sixty years old and had made this city his home for a number of years, being employed as a tailor. He had suffered a number of years from asthma and this caused his death. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

START RECOUNT.

A recount of the population of Columbus and East Columbus was begun Friday by volunteers, and it is expected that it will be finished Monday. It is also expected that the recount will show at least 1,000 more population for this city than was shown by the census report.

SENATE TAKING PROMPT ACTION

Legislative Jam In That Body Being Cleared Away.

JAPANESE TREATY RATIFIED

All Opposition Had Been Withdrawn and the Treaty Was Ratified Without Even a Demand For a Roll Call—Indication That Resolution For Popular Election of Senators Will Fall—No Date Set For Lorimer Vote.

Washington, Feb. 25.—A vote was taken on the Sutherland amendment to the resolution submitting a constitutional amendment for popular election of senators and the amendment was adopted by a vote of 50 to 37. It was then agreed that a vote shall be taken on the resolution, as amended, next Tuesday. It is the opinion that the resolution will be defeated.

The adoption by the senate of the so-called Sutherland amendment to the resolution proposing direct election of senators practically means the defeat of that resolution. Its supporters concede that with the Sutherland amendment attached to it, the chances of the acceptance by the senate of the main plan are slight. The Sutherland amendment retains to the federal government control over elections of senator, including the power of prescribing the qualifications of voters. The original resolution empowered the states themselves to regulate the elections of senators. The adoption of the Sutherland amendment has raised a fear in the minds of southerners that its incorporation into the United States constitution might give the federal government more power than it possesses to interfere with the grandfather clauses in the constitutions of the southern states, and several southerners who would have supported the original resolution will now vote against it in its amended form. Supporters of the direct election resolution have charged that the introduction of the Sutherland amendment was merely a scheme on the part of opponents of the bill to accomplish its defeat.

La Follette Objected.

An effort was made to reach an agreement for a vote on the Lorimer case and at one time it looked as if the vote might be taken on Wednesday afternoon by unanimous consent, but Senator La Follette finally objected to fixing a day.

The Japanese treaty has been ratified, all opposition having been withdrawn. There was not even a demand for a roll call.

Senator Culberson of Texas submitted a resolution in the senate declaring it to be the sense of the senate that the treaty of 1832 with Russia should be abrogated because the Russian government had failed to extend protection to American citizens under it. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Senator Burrow, from the committee on finance, reported to the senate without recommendation the Canadian reciprocity bill. Senators Bailey and Stone stated that they had failed to concur in the report, the senator from Texas because he was opposed to it, and the senator from Missouri because he was in favor of it. Each senator declared that the committee should have reported either favorably or adversely.

Senator Beveridge of Indiana held the senate for most of the day yesterday in concluding his address on the Lorimer case.

TIME IS FLEETING

Congress Making Up for Past by Holding Night Sessions.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The house remained in session until 9 o'clock last night considering the sundry civil bill, which carries an appropriation of $140,000,000 for various public purposes. The provision appropriating $400,000 for the tariff board was adopted. The appropriation of $75,000 allowed for the administration economy board went out on a point of order. The house agreed to the conference report on the river and harbor bill. As this report was acted on in the senate early in the week, it now goes to the president for approval.

Night Riders of Kentucky Display Signs of Renewed Activity.

Owingsville, Ky., Feb. 25.—One house wrecked by an explosion of dynamite and notes of warning posted on newly grown tobacco beds constitute the initial work of night riders to date in this section. Sentiment among tobacco growers of Bath county has been strong for the elimination of the 1911 crop. The house dynamited was untenanted, but had been rented to a farmer who purposed to raise a crop this season.

EXTRA SESSION NOW DEPENDS ON SENATE

President Taft Formally Emphasizes His Intention.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The president will consult with the house Democratic leaders in the event that he calls a special session of congress. He so informed Speaker-Elect Champ Clark and Oscar Underwood, the chairman of the ways and means committee of the next house, whom he summoned to discuss the possibility of convening the new congress in extra session. Mr. Taft informed the two Democratic leaders of the new house that he will choose the last day of the present session, March 4, for calling an extra session. He let his visitors understand in the plainest sort of language that he would call the extra session if a vote was not permitted on the Canadian treaty in the senate.

Mr. Clark and Mr. Underwood suggested to the president that the session should not begin until about thirty days after the expiration of the life of the present congress, in order that they may perfect their organization and get ready to tackle the tariff question. Mr. Taft promised Underwood that he would consult with him about the date before issuing the call for the extra session. This means that an extra session, if called, will hardly begin until April 4.

It is said that Mr. Taft has not much hope of securing a vote on the Canadian agreement at this session.

EASTER WILL BE LATE THIS YEAR

It is held by many who claim to be weather wise that the time of the arrival of for sure spring weather is governed not a little by the date on which Easter Sunday falls. They claim that when there is an early Easter there is likewise an early spring, and vice versa.

If this rule holds good this year a late spring is inevitable, for Easter Sunday falls on April 16 and this is regarded as a rather late Easter as late Easters go. Easter is a day of egg feasts and if the present prices on eggs holds good until Easter there will undoubtedly be many eggs consumed on that day in Rushville.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebium, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots and overcome baldness, so long as there is an ylife left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

STATE RAILROADS MAIM 99 In THREE MONTHS.

Ninety-nine passengers were injured on passenger trains during the last quarter of 1910, according to accident bulletin No. 14, just issued by the railroad commission of Indiana. Only seventy-three were injured in the last quarter of 1909. Thirty-eight employees were killed during October, November and December, 1910, as compared to twenty-two in 1909. No passengers were killed on interurban roads during the last quarter, while three were killed during the corresponding quarter of 1909 and fifty were killed during the third quarter of 1910. The commission calls attention to the fact that sixty persons were killed or injured while trespassing on right of way. Forty casualties occurred during the last quarter of 1910 on the highways. A bill now before the General Assembly, making it unlawful to go upon railroad tracks, is urged for passage. Seventeen steam and electric roads did not report any accidents during the quarter.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Both Glad to Recommend Parisian Sage the Guaranteed Hair Grower and Dandruff Cure.

Mrs. J. R. Burgess writes from 514 Plum St., Danville, Va., June 4, 1910, as follows:

"I have used Parisian Sage and find it to be all you claim for it, and cheerfully recommend it to any one who is suffering from any hair dandruff, or scalp trouble."

On the same date Odille Burgess, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Burgess wrote:

"I am only a little girl, but I want to tell what Parisian Sage has done for me. I had scalp disease that looked like dandruff and when it was combed up there would be bloody water under the dandruff. Mamma tried everything in the way of a hair tonic, without results, until she saw the advertisement of Parisian Sage; she got a bottle and it cured me, but kept on using it. Now I have as beautiful a head of hair as any girl."

Men, women and children, in every section of America who are using ordinary commercial hair tonics should give Parisian Sage a trial. It is so far ahead of all others that one application will prove its great superiority.

It is guaranteed by F. B. Johnson & Co. to stop falling hair and itching scalp, and to drive out all dandruff in two weeks or money back. It grows hair in abundance and gives to the hair a lustrous and fascinating appearance, 50 cents a large bottle at F. B. Johnson & Co., and druggists everywhere.

PEACE PROMISED

Bonilla's Withdrawal Eases the Situation in Honduras.

Puerto Cortez, Honduras, Feb. 25.—With bad grace General Manuel Bonilla, leader of the revolution against President Davila, has yielded to the demands of the conservative element of the country and to Davila, and has withdrawn his demand to be made president of the country. He did so only after four days' peace negotiations had been conducted aboard the U. S. S. Tacoma, and after every available pound of pressure had been brought to bear against his obstinacy and ambition.

"This, or the stubbornest warfare" was the ultimatum of Davila. Bankers, capitalists and business men and other conservatives backed Davila's demand, not out of friendship for him or hatred for Bonilla, but in the interests of peace. Thomas C. Dawson, American commissioner to the conference, may be given the task of selecting the provisional president to hold office, until the October elections.

A NEW CONSTITUTION WANTED IN ILLINOIS

Lawrence Y. Sherman Takes Lead in Movement.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 25.—Lawrence Y. Sherman has gone to the front for a constitutional convention.

He addressed the senate committee and urged that there be a thorough overhauling of the present constitution, which he classed as "binding shackles upon the state."

At the same meeting the initiative and referendum proposition amendment proposition was favored by J. H. Walker, representing the organized miners; Oliver Wilson, president of the State Grange; and T. W. Swan of Chicago, representing the Peoria conference committee of seven.

Senators Hay, Burton and Curtis were made a subcommittee to redraft the pending amendment touching upon minority representation in the house, and next Thursday was set for a general public hearing.

The prophecy which came from the committee is that it will report favorably on the resolution for a constitutional convention, coupled with the submission of one amendment, which doubtless will be that covering the initiative and referendum.

IN MITCHELL'S DEFENSE

Illinois Miners Come to Aid of Former National Head.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 25.—Delegates attending the Illinois convention of mine workers gave an almost unanimous vote to a resolution condemning the international for its treatment of John Mitchell. Socialist leaders in the convention opposed the resolution, but could muster only eleven votes on roll call.

No attack was made upon Mitchell, the Socialists confining their arguments solely to the uselessness of his association with the Civic Federation, which was characterized as an organization of plutocrats and capitalists seeking to oppress labor.

Considerable criticism was heaped upon International President Lewis of the mine workers for the part he is charged with playing to get even with Mitchell. The delegates joined in a round of fiery denunciation of nearly everything pertaining to the capitalist class.

Gas Broke Up Revival.

Flemington, W. Va., Feb. 25.—While the Rev. Mr. Chipps was preaching at a revival meeting in Bailey chapel, near here, he fell to the floor, and eleven of his hearers became unconscious from inhaling gas. John Stutler opened the doors and windows and carried out the twelve men. A broken pipe allowed the building to become filled with gas.

The Massachusetts legislature killed a bill to provide for the taxation of bachelors.

BALD HEADS WORRIED.

Ralph H. Spangh, prosecuting attorney of Columbus, Ind., believes in the evolution of dogs. He has a short-tailed dog, the father and mother of which had tails of the usual length. However, for three generations the ancestors of this dog have had their tails cut off. Finally fate evidently decided that a painful operation would be saved by allowing the dogs to be born without tails, and the fox terrier owned by Prosecutor Spangh is right in style without having to undergo an operation.

Spangh told about his dog in the circuit court room and his story created alarm among the bald-headed lawyers. They have expressed a fear that in a few generations their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren will be having less and less hair until about the third generation will see all of them wholly bald.

Warner Schmidt of New Castle, brother of Mrs. Fred Beale of North Oliver street who will open up a new amusement house in the Abercrombie room just vacated by the J. W. Hogsett store, came yesterday. He expects to begin work on repairing the building at once, preparatory to installing his theater.

Temperature Hovers Around Forty Mark and Sun Makes Appearance in Pleasing Manner.

CHERRY BLOSSOMS ARE NEXT

Some one has said spring has come. Maybe it was a poet, but then you know that poets do not always tell falsehoods. And so it is. While the temperature is just a little low for real nice spring weather, it is nevertheless what the old-timers would call a nice April day. The temperature this morning at 10 o'clock was hovering around the 40 mark, and was threatening to go even higher. During the night the mercury remained near the 30 mark.

Old Sol made his appearance this morning in a very pleasing manner and is warming things up in his lively way. Just how long this pleasant weather will continue is a matter of conjecture but the worst of winter has surely passed and it can not be long until some one notices some of his cherry trees blossoming out, the first real-for-sure sign of spring.

A Departmental Case

By O. Henry

Copyright, by Ainslie Magazine Co.

IN Texas you may travel a thousand miles in a straight line. If your course is a crooked one, it is likely that both the distance and your rate of speed may be vastly increased. Clouds there sail serenely against the wind. The whip-poor-will delivers its disconsolate cry with the notes exactly reversed from those of his northern brother. Given a drought and a subsequent lively rain, and lo! from a glazed and stony soil will spring in a single night blossomed lilies, miraculously fair. Tom Green county was once the standard of measurement. I have forgotten how many New Jerseys and Rhode Islands it was that could have been stowed away and lost in its chaparral. But the legislative ax has slashed Tom Green into a handful of counties hardly larger than European kingdoms. The legislature convenes at Austin, near the center of the state; and, while the representative from the Rio Grande country is gathering his palm-leaf fan and his linen duster to set out for the capital, the Panhandle soldier winds his muffler above his well-buttoned overcoat and kicks the snow from his well greased boots ready for the same journey. All this merely to hint that the big ex-republic of the southwest forms a sizable star on the flag, and to prepare for the corollary that things sometimes happen there uncut to pattern and unfettered by metes and bounds.

The commissioner of insurance, statistics and history of the state of Texas was an official of no very great or very small importance. The past tense is used, for he is commissioner of insurance alone. Statistics and history are no longer proper nouns in the government records.

In the year 188— the governor appointed Luke Coonrod Standifer to be head of this department. Standifer was then fifty-five years of age, and a Texan to the core. His father had been one of the state's earliest settlers and pioneers. Standifer himself had served the commonwealth as Indian fighter, soldier, ranger and legislator. Much learning he did not claim, but he had drank pretty deep of the spring of experience.

If other grounds were less abundant, Texas should be well up in the lists of glory as the grateful republic. For both as republic and state, it has busily heaped honors and solid rewards upon its sons who rescued it from the wilderness.

Wherefore and therefore, Luke Coonrod Standifer, son of Ezra Standifer, ex-Terry ranger, simon-pure Democrat, and lucky dweller in an unrepresented portion of the politico-geographical map, was appointed commissioner of insurance, statistics and history.

Standifer accepted the honor with some doubt as to the nature of the office he was to fill and his capacity for filling it—but he accepted, and by wire. He immediately set out from the little country town where he maintained (and was scarcely maintained by) a nomadic and unfruitful office of surveying and map-drawing. Before departing, he had looked up under the Y's, S's and H's in the "Encyclopaedia Britannica" what information and preparation toward his official duties that those weighty volumes afforded.

A few weeks of incumbency diminished the new commissioner's awe of the great and important office he had been called upon to conduct. An increasing familiarity with its workings soon restored him to his accustomed placid course of life. In his office was an old, spectacled clerk—a consecrated, informed, able machine, who held his desk regardless of changes of administrative heads. Old Kauffman instructed his new chief gradually in the knowledge of the department without seeming to do so, and kept the wheels revolving without the slip of a cog.

Indeed, the department of insurance, statistics and history carried no great left of the burden of state. Its main work was the regulating of the business done in the state by foreign insurance companies, and the letter of the law was to guide. As for statistics—well, you wrote letters to county officers, and scissored other people's reports, and each year you got out a report of your own about the corn crop and the cotton crop and pecans and pigs and black and white population, and a great many columns of figures headed "bushels" and "acres" and "square miles," etc.—and there you were. History? The branch was purely a receptive one. Old ladies interested in the science bothered you some with long reports of proceedings of their historical societies. Some twenty or thirty people would write you each year that they had secured Sam Houston's pocket knife or Santa Anna's whisky-flask or Davy Crockett's rifle—all absolutely authenticated—and demanded legislative appropriation to purchase. Most of the work in the history branch went into pigeon-holes.

One sizzling August afternoon the commissioner reclined in his office chair, with his feet upon the long, official table covered with green billiard cloth. The commissioner was smoking a cigar, and dreamily regarding the quivering landscape framed by the window that looked upon the treeless capital grounds. Perhaps he was thinking of the rough and ready life he had led, of the old days of breathless adventure and movement, of the comrades who now trod other paths or had ceased to tread any, of the changes civilization and peace had brought, and, maybe, complacently, of the snug and comfortable camp pitched for him under the dome of the capitol of the state that had not forgotten his services.

The business of the department was lax. Insurance was easy. Statistics were not in demand. History was dead. Old Kauffman, the efficient and perpetual clerk, had requested an infrequent half-holiday, incited to the unusual dissipation by the joy of having successfully twisted the tail of a Connecticut insurance company that was trying to do business contrary to the edicts of the great Lone Star state.

The office was very still. A few subdued noises trickled in through the open door from the other departments—a dull, tinkling crash from the treasurer's office adjoining, as a clerk tossed a bag of silver to the floor of the vault—the vague, intermittent clatter of a dilatory typewriter—a dull tapping from the state geologist's quarters as if some woodpecker had flown in to bore for his prey in the cool of the massive building—and then a faint rustle and the light shuffling of the well-worn shoes along the hall, the sounds ceasing at the door toward which the commissioner's lethargic back was presented. Following this, the sound of a gentle voice speaking words unintelligible to the commissioner's somewhat dormant comprehension, but giving evidence of bewilderment and hesitation.

"ARE YOU AMOS COLVIN'S DAUGHTER?"

The voice was feminine; the commissioner was of the race of cavaliers who make salaam before the trail of a skirt without considering the quality of its cloth.

There stood in the door a faded woman, one of the numerous sisterhood of the unhappy. She dressed all in black—poverty's perpetual mourning for lost joys. Her face had the contours of twenty and the lines of forty. She may have lived that intervening score of years in a twelvemonth. There was about her yet an air of indignance, unappeased, protesting youth that shone faintly through the premature veil of unearned decline.

"I beg your pardon, ma'am," said the commissioner, gaining his feet to the accompaniment of a great creaking and sliding of his chair.

"Are you the governor, sir?" asked the vision of melancholy.

The commissioner hesitated at the end of his best bow, with his hand in the bosom of his double-breasted "frock." Truth at last conquered.

"Well, no, ma'am. I am not the governor. I have the honor to be com-

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

missioner of insurance, statistics and history. Is there anything ma'am, I can do for you? Won't you have a chair, ma'am?"

The lady subsided into the chair handed her, probably from purely physical reasons. She wielded a cheap fan—last token of gentility to be abandoned. Her clothing seemed to indicate a reduction almost to extreme poverty. She looked at the man who was not the governor, and saw kindness and simplicity and a rugged, unadorned courtliness emanating from a countenance tanned and toughened by forty years of out of doors. Also, she saw that his eyes were clear and strong and blue. Just so they had been when he used them to skim the horizon for raiding Kiowas and Sioux. His mouth was as set and firm as it had been on that day when he bearded the old lion Sam Houston himself, and defied him during that season when secession was the theme. Now, in bearing and dress, Luke Coonrod Standifer endeavored to do credit to the important arts and sciences of insurance, statistics and history. He had abandoned the careless dress of his country home. Now, his broad-brimmed black slouch hat, and his long-tailed "frock" made him not the least imposing of the official family, even if his office was reckoned to stand at the tail of the list.

"You wanted to see the governor, ma'am?" asked the commissioner, with the deferential manner he always used toward the fair sex.

"I hardly know," said the lady hesitatingly. "I suppose so." And then, suddenly drawn by the sympathetic look of the other, she poured forth the story of her need.

It was a story so common that the

WORKING WOMEN

Here is a Helping Hand—A Newton Woman's Experience.

You know just how it is yourself—when you are tired out, perhaps a little run-down, and hardly able to drag around, life is a burden, you are irritable, nervous, depressed and every little task seems like a mountain.

Miss Katherine Burns, of Newton, Mass., says—"About six months ago I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians, but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I noticed a great improvement. I have taken six bottles and I feel as well as ever, and I would recommend Vinol to anybody needing a good tonic to build them up and make them strong." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

We want to ask every woman who finds herself in this condition to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not help them.

We know Vinol will create an appetite, aid digestion, make pure, rich blood, and in this way build up and strengthen the run-down, overworked, nervous system. You take no chances. Try it. F. B. Johnson & Co. Druggists, Rushville, Ind.

don't remember hearing him talk about much else. Every day there was some story he had to tell about what he and you had done. Mighty near the last thing I heard him tell was about the time when the Indians wounded him, and you crawled out to him through the grass, with a canteen of water, while they—"

"Yes, yes—well—oh, that wasn't anything," said Standifer, "hemming" loudly and buttoning his coat again, briskly. "And now, ma'am, who was the infernal skunk—I beg your pardon, ma'am—who was the gentleman you married?"

"Benton Sharp." The commissioner plumped down again into his chair, with a groan. This gentle, sad little woman, in the rusty black gown, the daughter of his oldest friend, the wife of Benton Sharp! Benton Sharp, one of the most noted "bad" men in that part of the state—a man who had been a cattle thief, an outlaw, a desperado, and was now a gambler, a swaggering bully, who plied his trade in the larger frontier towns, relying upon his record and the quickness of his gun play to maintain his supremacy. Seldom did anyone take the risk of going "up against" Benton Sharp. Even the law officers were content to let him make his own terms of peace. Sharp was a ready and an accurate shot, and as lucky as a brand-new penny at coming clear from his scrapes. Standifer wondered how this pillaging eagle ever came to be mated with Amos Colvin's little dove, and expressed his wonder.

Mrs. Sharp sighed. "You see, Mr. Standifer, we didn't know anything about him, and he can be very pleasant and kind when he wants to. We lived down in the little town of Goliad. Benton came riding down that way, and stopped there a while. I reckon I was some better looking then than I am now. He was good to me for a whole year after we were married. He insured his life for me for five thousand dollars. But for the last six months he has done everything but kill me. I often wish he had done that, too. He got out of money for a while, and abused me shamefully for not having anything he could spend. Then father died, and left me the little home in Goliad. My husband made me sell that, and turned me out into the world. I've barely been able to live, for I'm not strong enough to work. Lately, I heard he was making money in San Antonio, so I went there, and found him, and asked for a little help. This," touching the livid bruise on her temple, "is what he gave me. So I came on to Austin to see the governor. I once heard father say that there was some land, or a pension, coming to him from the state that he never would ask for."

Luke Standifer rose to his feet, and pushed his chair back. He looked rather perplexed around the big office, with its handsome furniture.

"It's a long trail to follow," he said, slowly, "trying to get back dues from the government. There's red tape and lawyers and rulings and evidence and courts to keep you waiting. I'm not certain," continued the commissioner, with a profoundly meditative frown, "whether this department that I'm the boss of has any jurisdiction or not. It's only insurance, statistics and history, ma'am, and it don't sound as if it could cover the case. But sometimes a saddle blanket can be made to stretch. You keep your seat, just for a few minutes, ma'am, till I step into the next room and see about it."

YOUTHFUL JURORS

Schoolboys in Kentucky Called on Early to Serve the State.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 25.—Thomas Daugherty of Owingsville, Ky., had the unusual experience of being tried and convicted in the Bath county circuit court by a jury of twelve boys ranging in years from thirteen to eighteen. Daugherty was charged with selling soft drinks which proved to be intoxicating.

When his case was ready for trial both the regular juries were out on other cases. Judge Young ordered the sheriff to go to the city high school and select twelve boys. He did so, and after hearing the testimony the young jurymen retired to the jury room and after deliberating twenty-five minutes returned a verdict fixing the penalty as a fine of $25.

NATIONAL BANKS STAND TO LOSE

According to Statement of This Treasury Official.

DEPENDS UPON CANAL BONDS

If They Are Issued With the Circulation Privilege, Says Mr. Andrew, the Market Value of U. S. 2s Would Fall Anywhere From 10 to 15 Points,
Meaning a Probable Loss of Millions
to Banks.

Washington, Feb. 25.—According to a statement made by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury A. Platt Andrew,
the national banks of this country
stand to lose somewhere between $70, 000,000 and $100,000,000. If Panama canal bonds to the amount of $290,000, 000, authorized in 1909, are issued with the circulation privilege, says
Mr. Andrew, the market value of the United States 2 per cent bonds, of which there is $730,000,000 outstanding, would fall anywhere from 10 to 15 points. More than four-fifths of the 2s outstanding, according to Mr. Andrew, are held by national banks, who would consequently be the greatest sufferers.

Mr. Andrew says that Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh and other officers are anxiously awaiting action
by congress to authorize the issuance of Panama canal bonds without the circulation privilege.

"That Secretary MacVeagh will be obliged to borrow money before many months have elapsed seems clear,"
says Andrew. "The working balance, which stood at $37,000,000 on Dec. 31
and at $30,000,000 on Jan. 31, was reduced according to the cash statement of February, to less than $25,000,000.
Any considerable decrease will bring it close to the danger point. Then the secretary must begin to borrow."

Gloucester Fishing Vessel Goes Down
With All on Board.

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 25.—For the first time in seven years the loss of a Gloucester vessel with all on board is chronicled without any knowledge of how the craft and her crew met their fate.

A month and a day has elapsed since the schooner Ella M. Goodwin of this port left Lark's Harbor at the head of the Bay of Islands, Newfoundland, bound for home with a cargo of herring. She has never been heard from since. The night she left there was a storm and the ice had begun to race through the Gulf of St. Lawrence from the Arctic regions. While a good many inclined to the belief that the vessel never survived that first night out in the bay of St. Lawrence, hope was entertained that she had been caught in the ice and would be heard from later.

of men had been congregating around

In one melee, Charles Thompson, a

a knife; B. A. Hard, a mill employee, had an arm broken and many others were injured. More than 400 men took part. Later in the night the partially wrecked. Threats of blood-

Indianapolis, Feb. 25.—When the drawn to amend the civil procedure practice in the courts of the state, and lawyers. It was finally advanced to Big Bunch of Lobbyists.

While the fight was being made on the bill the rear of the chamber was packed with corporation lobbyists,
many of them being the representatives of railroads. The big lobby "convention" gave close attention to the proceedings, and when action on the bill had been completed adjourned and filed out into the corridors.

The bill came out of the judiciary committee with a divided report, a minority for the indefinite postponement of the bill, while a majority of the committee recommended the passage of the bill. There was a spectacular fight on the floor in which Speaker Veneman took a hand, and the minority report was laid on the table on a motion by Mr. Veneman, and the majority report was adopted. The vote on the motion to table the minority report was 47 to 46.

When the roll call was finished and noses had been counted, it was found that twenty-four of the forty Republican members of the house had voted to kill the bill and that five others had "ducked" the vote. Twenty-two of the sixty Democrats voted to kill the bill and two failed to vote. One of the latter, Benjamin Johnson, is ill.

The house made thirty-six amendments to the Proctor liquor restriction bill, chief of which gives city councils and town boards power to fix licenses.

After bitter attacks on Governor Marshall for forcing the legislature to adopt a plan of amending the state's basic law, the "Tom Marshall" constitution was sent to engrossment in the senate. The proposed method of adopting the many changes in the present constitution was assailed by Republican senators and they were joined by Senator Powers of Angola,
a Democrat. The five-minute debate rule was enforced and the whole constitution was disposed of in just two hours.

Specific Appropriations.

After completing the regular appropriation bill the senate as the committee of the whole, took up the specific appropriations bill. Several amendments were made to the bill,
these being by the insertion of additional items. The additional expenditures authorized a total of $36,171, this including an appropriation of not more than $75,000, if the state's finances, in the opinion of the governor, treasurer and auditor will permit. The large item is for a farm colony in connection with one of the insane hospitals. Only one item was reduced. This was the $1,000 item for painting twelve doors at the state-house, reduced to $500.

When the work of considering the regular and specific appropriation bills
was completed, both bills were favorably reported to the senate, and will now follow the regular course of other bills.

Several changes were made in the specific appropriation bill. It was agreed to strike out an item of $3,000 for a vegetable cellar and $5,000 for an amusement hall for the state soldiers' home at Lafayette and to substitute an item of $10,000 for a nurses' cottage. There was an addition to the appropriations for the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville of an item of $2,500 for purchasing three houses and lots which corner in a tract of fifteen acres owned by the state adjoining the institution; an item of $1,950 for a fence around this fifteen-acre tract,
and an item of $1,000 for scales.
Stotsenburg explained the need of the scales by saying that in one month at the institution it was discovered that the coal delivered was eighty-eight tons short.

The sum of $1,071 was added to the appropriations for the Indiana state prison for the purchase of track scales. The secretary of state's office received an additional specific appropriation of $2,400 for indexing and replacing documents and records. This means a job for someone for two years.

AMUSEMENTS

The Star Grand offers a Thanhouseer film tonight which is a dramatization of one of Dickens' great tales entitled "The Old Curiosity Shop." It will be appreciated by every lover of Dickens, every true admirer, who wants the true Dickens spirit in play
 and picture as well as story. Mr.
 Edward will sing a new song.

The Palace will have a Selig film tonight entitled "The Spy." It is a story of the civil war and follows the adventure of a Confederate spy. He is captured but manages to escape
 by the aid of a small boy. The means used is novel and new. Earl Robertson will sing, "Golden Hearted Daisies."

The Vaudet will have its usual big double program for Saturday night patrons when two reels of pictures will be shown. The Nestor, "The Red Man's Honor" is a typical western drama and is replete with rich dramatic action, injected into it by the unusualness of the plot. "An Adventure of a Millionaire" is a Powers picture, and is said to be decidedly unique and out of the ordinary. A new illustrated song will be on the program.

DROP GAME BY NARROW MARGIN

Rushville High School Quintet Loses
 to Madison on Strange Floor
 by Score of 24 to 23.

PLAY NORTH VERNON TONIGHT

Defeated by Richmond Last Week by Only One Point—Chances Are Slender.

That misfortune is following in the wake of the Rushville high school basket ball team seems imminent since it was defeated by the mere margin of one point by the Madison high school quintet in that city last night, and that it was beaten only last week by Richmond on their floor by the small margin of one point. The locals have been putting up an excellent brand of ball all season and are deserving of better luck than they have had in the last two games. The score last night was 24 to 23.

None of the details of the game last night are known, but from the score it is supposed that it was a very hotly contested one. Bebout, the fast center of the local five and possibly the best high school basket ball player in this section of the State, was in good condition for the game last night and it was thought that Rushville would have an easy victory. The team will journey on to North Vernon this evening, where they will play the high school five of that city.

That Rushville may have to sprint some to represent this district in the basket ball meet to be held by Indiana University at the close of the season, seems very likely, since Morristown has a clean slate so far this season. It has been said that Rushville and Morristown would clash for honors before the season ends, but no definite arrangements have been made.

MORRISTOWN WINS.

Morristown won another basket ball game last night, defeating the Mooresville quintet by the score of 20 to 15 on the Morristown floor. So far this season, Morristown has not lost a game.

SHELBYVILLE WINS.

In a fast game of basket ball at Shelbyville last night, Connersville lost to the Shelbyville quintet by the score of 62 to 20. The contest was marked by the excellent team work of the Shelbyville five. Rushville has defeated Shelbyville once and Con-nersville twice.

WILL ELECT OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the members of the Rushville Social club will be held in the club rooms Thursday, March ninth, at which time the regular officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

SEVEN ARE CONVERTED.

The protracted meetings, which are being held by the Salvation Army in the South Pearl street church every night will be continued throughout next week. They have proved to be very effectual as already seven conversions have been made.

COURT BILL MAY YET BE PASSED

Yarling Measure, Providing For a Superior Court in Shelby County is Amended in House.

BELIEVED IT WILL GO THROUGH

Provides That Judge Blair May Transfer Cases in Order to Avoid Delay.

The court bill introduced Monday
 by Senator Yarling has been reported for passage by the House judiciary committee, says the Shelbyville Democrat. The measure provides for a superior court for Shelby county, to be presided over by the judge of one of the superior courts in Marion county. Important amendments were made by the House committee and the local attorneys believe these will insure its passage in the House.

Included in the amendments is a clause that authorizes Judge Alonzo Blair to transfer the cases in the circuit court in which he has been interested as an attorney, to the superior court. Another clause authorizes Judge Blair to transfer cases from his court from time to time in order that there will be no congestion nor unnecessary delays in the administration of justice.

Local attorneys were not prepared today to say just when the bill will come up for passage in the House,
 but they are expecting a call to gird
 on their armor any time and go to Indianapolis to safeguard the bill and see that it passes safely through the House.

By the passage of the Stotsenburg
 bill in the Senate, several of the objections to the Yarling measure were overcome. It provides for the election of certain judges in "off years," extending the term of several superior court judges in the State, and of the probate and juvenile court judges in the State, and of the probate and juvenile court judges in Marion county. Senator Sullivan of Marion county, obtained an entirely new substituted bill by means of an amendment, the only change being in the elimination of certain clauses.
 The main provisions were unchanged.
 Because of a court decision that an express provision extending a judicial term is invalid this specific clause was eliminated and the bill changed so as to provide that an election of superior judges shall be held in 1914 and that no superior judges be elected in 1912.

To be Repeated.

The first lecture on Applied Psychology by Prof. Moulton was heard last night by a large number at the assembly room and requests have come in from others who desire to join the class. The first lecture will be repeated Monday at 3 p. m. for those who desire to join the class.
 Much interest is manifested and those who heard the lecture last night speak in the highest terms of praise. For particulars inquire of Prof. Scholl or Miss Sleeth at the library. 1t

PASSES THE HOUSE.

The bill, providing that building
 and loan associations shall be examined by the auditor of State, pass-passes the House, which is very probable it will place the associations on such a footing that they will be as
